

2019 Genealogy News!

Corona Genealogical Society's January Calendar

January Meeting

Meetings are open and free to the general public at the Corona Public Library, Community Room (650 S. Main St., at 6th). The business portion of the meeting begins at 6:30pm and, after a short recess, the program begins between 7:00 and 7:15. We adjourn between 8:15 and 8:30pm. www.coronagensoc.org

| | |
|-----------|---|
| 7 January | "Potpourri: Latest & Greatest of Online Websites, Blogs, ... What's New and What can be Used" |
|-----------|---|

January Workshop & Classes

Tuesday afternoons – 12:30pm – 1:45pm, Computer Learning Center, Corona Public Library

| | |
|------------|---------------------------------|
| 8 January | Len Enlow, "Getting Started" |
| 15 January | Workshop |
| 22 January | Len Enlow, "Genealogy Software" |
| 29 January | Workshop |

Corona Stake Family History Center

The Library is located at rear of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, at 1123 S. Lincoln Ave., Corona, CA. Entrance is from the parking lot in the back. Library Phone: 951-735-2619 (Call during Library hours to speak with staff.)

Sun 6-8pm,

Tuesdays 9am-noon & 7-9pm,

Wed 9 am-3pm & 7-9pm,

Thurs 10am-1pm, 7-9pm

SAVE THE DATE!! Corona Stake Family History Center – Genealogy Seminar – 8:30am to 1pm January 19, 2019 – "A New Year, A New Look At Our Ancestors" – 12 Classes (two presented in Spanish)

Presenters –

Sara Cochran – "Disaster Proofing Your Research" "Grandma Said What? Gathering and Verifying Your Family's Oral History" and "Extra, Extra! Find Your Family in the Newspaper"

Kristi Sexton - "Hide and Seek with FamilySearch" "Genealogy on the Fly" and "Researching Logs: A Necessary Key to Organize your Research"

Laurice Johnson – For Beginners, 2-hour Class - Part One "Getting Ready to Get Started" and Part Two "Facebook & Websites & Books, Oh My!" and "Crossing the Pond"

Letty Rodella – in Spanish, "Researching Your Hispanic Ancestors"

Carlos Yturalde – in English, "Available Resources for Hispanic Genealogy Research"

Nancy Yturalde – in Spanish, "Using FamilySearch"

Rene and Dolores Montes - Computer hands-on help for Spanish speaking attendees in the FHC Library.

Orange County FamilySearch Library

674 S. Yorba St., Orange, CA 92869 – 714-997-7710. www.ocfamilyhistory.org

The Library is located at rear of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Entrance is from the back parking.

For More Information on the above programs and classes please contact the individual organizations. Thank you - Maggie Rawlins (maggierawlins@mac.com) (951) 233-823